If you or your student received a card during a library field trip, you can use it to read books, watch movies, and listen to music online through apps called Libby and Hoopla. If you can't find your card and need the number, let us know.

If you don't have a library card but need to look up facts for school, most digital encyclopedias are available without a card.

We compiled a short list of the best free digital books and online lessons to help with remote schooling.
